

Visit us at the
2024 ALA Annual Conference & Exhibition
San Diego | June 27 - July 2, 2024

Rosencrantz Laundry Basket

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Sarah Kott-Tannenbaum is a children's book author and designer living in Los Angeles, California. Classically trained as an Architect, and practicing as a lead designer for 15 years, one of her many passions lies in the provocation and self-reflection of storytelling.

When not pursuing artistic endeavors, Sarah enjoys traveling the California coast and abroad with her husband and fellow Architect, Samuel, or paddling around the surf with friends at Manhattan Beach.

  @sarahaipra

 @afu.arts

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Ann Fu is an illustrator and writer based in Vancouver, BC. Themes found in her work include environmentalism, Taiwanese culture, and mental health. Born and raised in Taipei, Taiwan, she studied and worked as an architect for a decade before becoming a full-time artist.

Eager to learn and experiment, her practice takes many forms, including comics, picture books, graphic design, illustration, and printmaking.

"A pleasant...cat tale with a lesson about facing one's fears." — Kirkus Reviews

"...satisfying little read, ...our little critics gave it a unanimous thumbsup." — Reader's Favorite

"A beautiful story of family, love and empathy! ...The book will captivate your child and become an instant favorite." — Amazon Reader

PRODUCT DETAILS

Price: $16.99
ISBN: 979-8-218-35374-2
Reading age: 0 - 4 years
Print length: 18 pages
Grade level: Preschool
Dimensions: 6 x 6 x 0.5 inches

Author Book
Signing!
Sunday 06/30
2 - 3pm

CONTACT

greenMUD design
+1 (213) 797 0241
greenmuddesign@gmail.com

"A pleasant...cat tale with a lesson about facing one's fears." — Kirkus Reviews